

$6 Million Garden Apartment Project Announced

A PANORAMA OF MOUNTAINS and desert in the Palm Desert area provides a backdrop for typical cluster of Sandpiper garden apartments set to get underway within a few weeks in the resort city. The six million dollar development of the Western Land & Capital Company will include nearly 600 apartments and will include individual patios, tennis courts, putting greens and pools. To be sold on the popular "own-your-own" basis, the developers revealed that linen, maid service and other resort hotel luxuries would be included for the Sandpiper owners in keeping with the theme of modern desert leisure. Palmer and Krisel, AIA, are the architects. George M. Holstein & Sons are the builders.

$6 Million Development Planned For 45 Acre Site in Palm Desert

Plans Call For 600 Homes

PALM DESERT — Construction of a luxurious "own your own home" hotel, which will cost $6,000,000, was announced today by William L. O'Bryon, president of the Western Land and Capital Company of Newport Beach.

The project will be located on a 45 acre site in Palm Desert, between Highway 111 and the Palms to Pines highway, in the sloping foreground of the Santa Rosa mountains.

PLANNED TO incorporate a score of completely new ideas in luxury desert living, the apartment project will be called the Sandpiper, and will provide "residential privacy with resort hotel service."

Included in the plans that call for 600 one story garden type residences, will be 24 heated swimming pools, eight tournament-size tennis courts, 12 private putting greens, and a dozen uniquely designed and secluded children's play yards.

A COCKTAIL LOUNGE and dining room also is scheduled, and is planned to location near the intersection of Highway 111 and the Palms to Pines Highway.

Outstanding features of the actual apartments will be their attractive design and functional living plans that can accommodate desert entertaining and year round family living. First units will include two bedrooms, two full baths, two dressing areas, and patios off both the bedroom and living areas. Kitchens will be completely pushbutton, compact and modern.

SANDPIPER APARTMENT homes will be sold on a cooperative basis with prices that start at $17,795. The complete recreational facilities are included in the price, along with arrangement for memberships in the nearby Shadow Mountain Club.

This new concept in desert living will also bring a new car-free existence to the Sandpiper owner, according to O'Bryon. Included will be the same kind of service as offered in the finest resort hotel. Clean linen, Sandpiper monogrammed towels, maid and room service are included, along with a gardener, pool maintenance and other typical hotel services.

TO ADD TO THE leisure living in the desert, each home will have individual privacy, tropical landscaping, complete underground utilities (including TV and telephone).

AT A PRESS conference held at the Shadow Mountain Club today, O'Bryon told newsmen that the investing group was looking forward to a continuing development program in this fast growing desert city. Behind the development is Western Land and Capital Company, substantial investors in Los Angeles and Orange Counties, as well as the San Diego area. This will be their first project in the desert.

Builder of the project will be George M. Holstein and Sons of Costa Mesa, Las Vegas and Beverly Hills. The long time Southern land builder has built scores of luxury homes, and has recently completed the Fairway Cottages at Thunderbird Golf Course.

Architects for the company are Palmer and Krisel, AIA, noted for the design of homes and apartments and winner of a score of national awards

Wild Storm Welcomes Spring To East Coast

New Living Cost Record Is Recorded

Food Prices Blamed For 3.2% Hike Over February 1957

WASHINGTON — Record high food prices pushed living costs to a new all-time high in February, the Labor Department reported today.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said the consumer price index rose two-tenths of 1 per cent last month despite rising unemployment and falling industrial production.

BLS COMMISSIONER Ewan Clague said he did not see much chance for a decline in living costs in the next few months. Consumer prices he said, hinge largely on crop conditions across the country.

The index last month stood at 122.5 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. It was 3.2 per cent higher than a year ago.

The index has reached new peaks in 16 of the last 18 months. It was unchanged in the other two.

FREEZING WEATHER in the South and a shortage of livestock at the market sent food prices up four-tenths of 1 per cent over January's record level. This was 4 1/2 per cent above a year earlier.

The rise in the index meant pay raises of one to two cents an hour for 100,000 workers in metals, aircraft, and local transit industries. About 30,000 workers at Hughes, Fairchild, and Martin aircraft companies will get the pay hike.

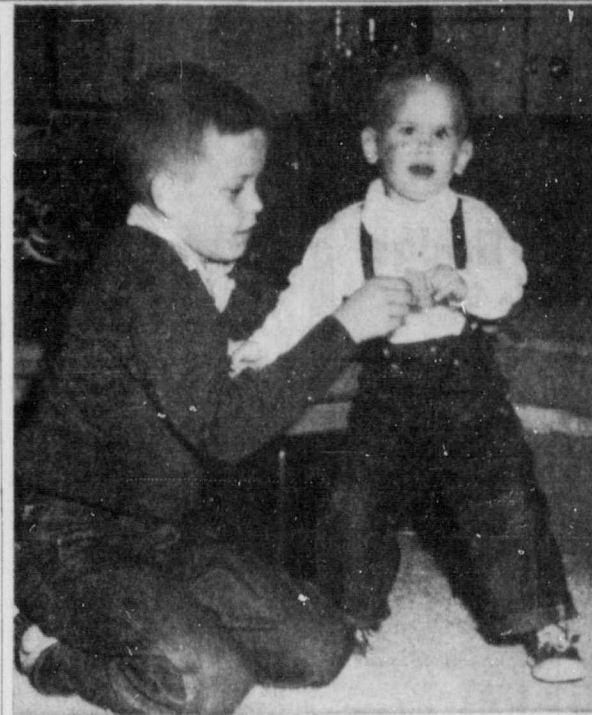

BUYING POWER of the average factory worker's pay was down by four-tenths of 1 per cent in February. It was almost 5 per cent below that of a year earlier because of rising costs and shorter hours.

Clague said the price index bears only a "remote" relation to business conditions. He said the prices of food and most services like rent, haircuts, doctor bills, and utility bills respond sluggishly to a downturn in the general economy.

CLAGUE SAID THE effects of the recession were apparent in some lower prices for durable goods such as cars, refrigerators, and appliances, and lower prices for soft goods like clothing, gas, fuel oil, and some household items.

Ike Cancels West Point Trip

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower cancelled his scheduled flight to West Point, N.Y., today because of bad weather.

THAT'S MY BIG BROTHER, could be the proud claim today of 20-month-old Jeffrey Easton, who was rescued from drowning by his eight-year-old brother, Donnie, as told in Thursday's Desert Sun. Above, the two boys pose in the family home. The plucky youngster plunged fully clad into a swimming pool to rescue his brother after the tot fell unnoticed into the water at the deep end of the pool. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Easton of 463 Vereda Norte. (Desert Sun Photo.)

Senate Passes Farm Price Support Bill; Veto Expected

WASHINGTON, —The Senate today hurriedly passed a House-approved bill to cancel pending administration cuts in farm price supports and sent it to President Eisenhower for a ticklish election-year veto decision.

Senate approval was by a roll call vote of 48 to 32. The House vote Thursday was 210 to 172. Both fell short of the two-thirds majority that would be needed to override an expected presidential veto.

THE BILL WOULD freeze farm price supports at present levels through this year and farm acreage allotments through next year. Earlier, the Senate had approved, 50 to 43, an indefinite freeze on prices and acreage in a slap at Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson and despite warnings of a presidential veto.

The House late Thursday amended the freeze order by a 210 to 172 vote and sent it back to the Senate for concurrence.

Hope Starts Trip Back to United States

MOSCOW —Bob Hope headed for home by way of the North Pole today, ending a six-day visit to the Soviet capital which he said was "quite an experience."

Hope left here in a Scandinavian airliner bound for Copenhagen, where he will transfer to another plane for the flight over the pole to Los Angeles.

During his stay here, Hope filmed backgrounds for a television show and conferred with Culture Minister Nikolai Mikhalov and other Soviet officials on arrangements for showing of a picture, "Paris Holiday."

ENJOY EVENING SHOW, EVENING PAPER FOR YEAR

"Enjoy the tops in entertainment and the tops in news."

This was the advice today of Orval Risvold, Desert Sun circulation manager, who said many persons are taking advantage of the offer to subscribe to The Desert Sun for one year, payable in advance, and receive one free ticket to the March 29, star-studded Police Show.

The Desert Sun is making the offer in cooperation with the Palm Springs Police Association and the Boys' Club, which will benefit from the show.

34 Deaths Blamed on Snow, Cold

Traffic Stalled, Power Goes Off In Many Areas

By UNITED PRESS
A wild northeast storm welcomed spring to New England today, halted travelers, downed wires and brought hardship to homes and offices along its snowy pathway through eastern states.

It buffeted ships at sea. Subways were snarled in New York City. Electric power and telephone communications, which began to go Thursday night as the snow piled onto lines, remained crippled over wide areas in sections of New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

GOV. GEORGE Leader declared a state of "extreme emergency" in Pennsylvania and order state agencies to "cooperate with public utility companies in efforts aimed at their restoration of essential service."

A United Press count showed the storm, which touched even a part of Georgia with its backwash, had brought death to 34 persons along its path. These included 18 in Pennsylvania, 6 in New York, 5 in New Jersey, 3 in Maryland, and 2 in Virginia.

THE STORM, dumping up to three feet of snow along part of its path northeastward from Virginia, showed no respect for place or person.

President Eisenhower was forced to cancel a planned flight to West Point. Navy vessels in Narragansett bay kept power revved up for a quick flight to sea if necessary to ride out the storm.

ON THE PENNSYLVANIA Turnpike, the snow-choked "high-speed" highway near Morgantown, bulldozers finally chewed through to about 800 persons who were trapped for nearly 24 hours in a restaurant. One motorist died while trying to reach the restaurant from his stalled car. The marooned persons slept in shifts, pitched in for community effort on necessary chores.

At least 13 states felt the bite of the storm, and it was called the worst in 20 years at some points.

Pine Bluff Delays Integration Plan

PINE BLUFF, Ark. —The first grade will not integrate next fall as planned because of "events which have occurred within our state," the Pine Bluff School Board said Thursday.

Winged Missiles Fleet Forecast

LOS ANGELES — A fleet of atomic-powered, winged missiles, cruising endlessly in the atmosphere and capable of zooming down on a designated target, was described today by a leading authority in the guided missile field.

Dr. William F. Ballhaus, vice president of Northrop Aircraft Inc., and general manager of Northrop's electronics division, envisioned the atomic-powered, winged missiles as a "powerful deterrent to war and a tremendous instrument for world peace."

"THEY WOULD present a constant threat of immediate retaliation while hovering in the higher altitudes armed with thermo-nuclear warheads," Ballhaus said. Ballhaus said such missiles could be guided by "onboard electronic equipment which would be programmed for indefinite hovering in the upper atmosphere."

"A GROUND SIGNAL to the guidance equipment would initiate an attack on a pre-selected or designated target," he said. "Such guidance equipment is technically feasible at this time."

The scientist said unlimited range missiles were now possible because of advances being made in the atomic power plant field.

"BECAUSE THERE would be no crew members, it would not be necessary to return the missiles to their base, other than for periodic maintenance," he said.

Earlier, the conference heard Dr. Werner von Braun, America's German-born rocket expert, say that the U.S. space program was lagging because we were trying too hard for perfection at the start.

Village Protests Vanguard Takes Sun from Clock

Dr. John P. Hagen director of Vanguard project at Cape Canaveral, Fla., received a shock this morning, one which probably will delay indefinitely firing of another satellite rocket.

Jimmy Cooper, Chamber of Commerce manager, submitted a complaint about the recent firing by telegram. It read:

"Since launching the Navy's Vanguard, the world's first solar energy clock located in Palm Springs, Calif., and powered by the same type solar cells used in Vanguard, has been losing time. Apparently Vanguard utilizing sun energy intended for Palm Springs. Since our village had priority in use of solar energy will you please arrange for you Vanguard to orbit elsewhere. Villagers getting restless."

WASHINGTON — The United States has turned down a Moscow request to let two Soviet jet airliners land in the New York area with about 150 members of a Russian dance ensemble, it was learned today.

Polio Shots Set For 850 Students

Almost a dozen local doctors will give freely of their time next week to inoculate some 850 school children against polio.

To most students the polio shot will be their third and last, but others will get first and second shots.

As listed by the school administration, the doctors who will help with the shots are Jack Nevins, Joseph Sage, Andrew Fitzmorris, William Elliot, William Harrison, Lee Palmer, P. A. Staley, Raymond Baddour, Charles E. Starr of Desert Hot Springs, A. G. Huenegard, and Karl Cretschmar.

House Committee Revises, Adds to President's Budget

WASHINGTON — The House Appropriations Committee today tore up President Eisenhower's budget for independent agencies and handed Congress a new one carrying a $627,577,440 higher price tag.

The committee refused to allot 200 million dollars the President requested. On the other hand, it voted to give him 827 million dollars he didn't request.

THE UNUSUAL ACTION was taken by the Democratic-controlled committee in approving for house floor action next week a $6,549,920,000 bill to fine a more than a dozen so-called independent federal agencies in the year starting next July 1.

The action was certain to set off a bitter floor fight.

THE COMMITTEE recommended $589,000,000 extra for the federal employees' retirement fund to prevent the deficit from increasing. Although it could be termed a mere bookkeeping transaction, the effect would be to increase the federal spending budget by that amount.

The President has been withholding the federal government's full contribution to the fund to make his spending budget look smaller. The committee turned thumbs down on that approach this year.

$177,255,000 MORE to finance construction of 66 public buildings projects. The administration wanted instead to acquire the buildings under lease-purchase contracts. Under this controversial system the buildings are constructed by private enterprise and the government buys them under the installment plan through so-called long-range "rental payments."

The committee said this system is "much more expensive and cumbersome" than direct government construction.

Denied $70,000,000 for stock-piling strategic and critical materials, saying that there already was more than seven billion dollars worth on hand.

ALLOTTED $4,932,210,000 to the Veterans Administration, instead of the requested $4,967,552,000.

The committee recommended an additional $8,356,000 for in-patient care and 10 million dollars for construction of VA hospitals but more than offset these budget increases by reductions in funds requested for pensions and benefits.

Union Motion Taken Under Advisement

Superior Court Special Sessions Judge Bertram Jones today took under advisement a motion by Attorney Lionel Richman, representing the Culinary and Bartenders Union local 535, to amend the complaint against the city's right to work ordinance.

City Attorney Jerry Bunker argued against the motion.

The law was changed early in 1956 by the city when the court failed to sustain legal action requested by the city, and the union attorney said recently that he "had just noticed that the law had been changed."

A determination by the judge is expected next week.

Neil Murbarger, Noted Author, To Be Speaker

Bicycle Race Plans Completed For Saturday

Miss Neil Murbarger, who has written many stories and articles and several books on the deserts of the West, including the best-selling "Ghosts of the Glory Trail," will present the Desert Museum Guest Lecture program at Frances Stevens School auditorium, 538 North Palm Canyon Drive, at 8 p.m., Saturday.

This is the second time Miss Murbarger will appear before the Museum, and she will present a number of Ektachrome slides on Arizona national monuments and desert flora, accompanied by a commentary.

The first charter to operate a telephone company in Michigan was granted in October, 1879 to the Ontonagon Telegraph Co. It consisted of wires strung among the four farm homes in Ontonagon.

Plans are completed for the bicycle races Saturday afternoon for boys and girls through the eighth grade, who attend Palm Springs District Schools. Rudy Salazar, chairman of the Palm Springs 40 et 8 1341, American Legion honor society, sponsored event, announced today.

The races will start at 1 p.m. at the Polo Grounds parking lot. Refreshments will be served, awards given to winners.

Other committee members are Pop Menard, Bill Rechin, Fred Golden and John Connell.

Greatest Construction Year In History Is Easy Forecast

The greatest year of new home construction in Palm Springs' history is now under way.

Announcement by a single home building firm of a $10,000,000 program for 370 new residences, in addition to the regular flow of construction already under way and planned by other firms and individuals, indicates that total building permits within the City limits during 1958 will range between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000.

Already the "white spot" of the nation for an area of this size with a monthly average of a million dollars in new construction for several years past, the increased boost of approximately 50 percent in new building is bound to make Palm Springs even busier and more prosperous.

Meanwhile, new construction is also keeping pace in the Country Club area to the south with an average of $500,000 to $600,000 per month in the Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage and Cathedral City sectors, all of which added to the growth within the city is bringing about a transformation of astounding size, scope and speed.

With our banking leaders advising the local population to prepare for an even greater and more rapid growth than that of the substantial gains of the past several years, it seems that all signs point to the beginning of a new era of expansion surpassing any previous period in the annals of the Desert Empire.

Fortunately our schools have already embarked upon an increased building schedule, and a new Desert Junior College is now in the making. Plans for a large convention hall have been proposed and more adequate quarters for the police department are in prospect. An election will soon be held to vote bonds for a larger sewage disposal plant.

Public utilities, already hard pressed to keep pace with growth, will have to revise their future programs upward.

Our highways are crowded and need a speedup in widening plus shortening of routes such as the long delayed paving of McCallum Way.

Basically Palm Springs and the surrounding area are accustomed to constantly increased growth. There are no insurmountable problems, but we must press on to completion of the tasks now under way in anticipation of our needs of the future.

Alert, active and forward looking leadership has never been more necessary, or of greater value toward attaining maximum progress in all phases of development.

No Make-Work on Defense

WASHINGTON, D. C. — It wouldn't hurt if Defense Secretary Neil McElroy took his lunch hour and went out in the park with a sandwich to think a little about his job. Mr. McElroy has recently yielded to a strong hint from Capitol Hill and has agreed to spend military dollars in areas of labor surplus.

In short, the Defense Secretary is choosing this way to defend us — against what?

If Mr. McElroy thinks that's the way to defend us against the Soviet military threat, we better get a new man at the Pentagon. This is the age of industrial skill. Pity or politics is not a substitute for savvy.

I HAVE BEEN ON the Florida east coast to see missiles launched, on the Florida west coast to see how missiles are guided by a built-in inertial system, in Alabama to see missiles manufactured, in California where the enormous aircraft industry is bending its brain and brawn to making missiles, past and future. Not one of these tasks is a job that ought to be make-work.

The unemployed are very nice people, and by writing columns like this I could very well join them, but the Federal Government has no right to solve its unemployment problem with defense projects. There is no surer way to arm the nation with inferior weapons and to risk a military disaster for the sake of a short-term social or political gain.

IF THE DEFENSE Secretary

can be operated by unskilled workers and would permit the economical manufacture of small numbers of items.

THE OVERALL result of the system, if successful, would be to reduce the cost of production, reduce the necessity of mass production, reduce the cost of living. The digitape system is intended as a modern refinement of the assembly line, and it could be just as revolutionary in our economic affairs.

But perhaps we should not put too much faith in technology. This system, and others like it, may fail or may take directions we have not anticipated. Much more dependable than gadgetry is the non-technical exercise of facing the truth about ourselves.

IF THE AMERICAN landscape is a wasteland of overpopulated machinery, the American skyline is a frieze of television antennas. And if the manufacturing industry in its greed has made too many automobiles, the farming industry has, in its avarice, taken too much food out of our American earth. It is downright preposterous for a nation amid its amusement boxes to talk poor and practice self-pity when it is overwhelmed with superabundance.

Defense Secretary McElroy, munching his sandwich on a park bench, should chew on these thoughts. We should abandon the tired old remedies. America's best defender would be the man who called for new techniques and tightened belts.

Dear Abby...

DEAR MISS ABBY: My son and I have been having a dispute and I wish you would settle it for us. One of his close friends who comes to our house often was here Sunday and I asked him two questions. One: Was he happy with his wife? Two: Did his father who just died leave him anything? Do you think there was anything wrong with these questions? MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I am sure you only meant to make friendly conversation, but these questions were of a very personal nature, and you possibly could have embarrassed your visitor.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is divorcing me because after thirty-one years together I am "too old" for him. He is 51 and very young-looking when he stays in his own age group, but he looks ridiculous when he tries to fit in with the younger crowd. My doctor says he is going through what amounts to a change of life for a man and says I should refuse to give him a divorce (he has no grounds). I have too much pride to hang on to a husband who doesn't want me. What should I do? PROUD

DEAR PROUD: You took this man in "sickness and in health." This is sickness. Stick with him.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a doll but I can never get him to do anything around the house. The place needs painting and repairs everywhere you look. How can I get him to do something? GIVE-UP

DEAR GIVE-UP: If something needs painting — get the paint and brushes and start to do it yourself (but not too well). No man can watch a woman paint without "taking over" to show her how it's done. The same goes for other odd jobs.

DEAR ABBY: I keep reading in your column where high school girls want to quit school and get married. I quit school in my senior year to marry a man who had good looks and a better life, but that's all he had. Three months later I knew I made a mistake but I was too ashamed to go home and I was alone pregnant. I've thought of leaving him but how can I get a job without a high school diploma. He is 27 and I am 20. I'm saddled with three kids but he runs around — with high school girls. If you think it will

THEY STILL ARE PILLS. Some are big and round and yellow. Designed to end what ails a fellow. Others are hued like Palm Springs shrubs. To ease you of that spot that hurts.

I gave in last week and let Mrs. G call in the doctor. I didn't mind so much when he pumped up a flat tire on my left arm or when he clobbered me on the chest with his bare knuckles.

It was only when he stuck the icy end of a stethoscope on my bare back that I came out of bed like a coiled spring.

THEN HE DREW some wierd pictures on sheets of paper and gave them to Mrs. G and she went to the drug store.

The good doctor's name was Dr. Denlinger. Mine's Graettinger.

The pharmacist let out a yelp. "How can I get those two names on an inch square label for these phials for Phat," he belowed.

WE SOON FIXED THAT. I called the medico Dr. D. and he called me Mr. G.

"These pills will take care of you," he said.

"Positively, Dr. D."

"Absolutely, Mr. G."

Those capsules were fanciful. One was blue on one end and gold on the other. I call them my Bing pills. "When the blue of the night, meets the gold of the day."

SPEAKING OF NAMES, I called Mr. Klotz, news room boss, long distance to tell him I wouldn't be in. I was all in.

"Spell it, please," said the long distance girl.

"K like in Kostelanetz, L like in Lawrence Welk, O like in ostensible, T like in ptomaine, Z like in zipper, B like in, hold it, B like in beer, U like in youth, E like in excellent, C like in catsup, E like in anything and R like in—are you there?"

"AND YOUR NAME, please," Graettinger, G like in jigger, R for argue, A —

"Stop! I'll make a running guess at it. You annoy me."

"I what you? Please spell it."

"A for anti-social, N for pneumonia, N for nuts to you, O for Oh, drop dead and Y for you big bum."

GENE SHERMAN of the L. A. Times said it first but I am going to anyway.

The way the pharmacists are putting out these gay, two-tone capsules, they must think they are interior decorators.

READ WHERE a woman advertising expert told automobile manufacturers that if they want to sell more cars, to interest more women in driving.

"You could sell a million more cars that way," she argued.

"What! And put a million more women drivers on the road?"

And the mean man said: "A woman driver wouldn't have as much trouble squeezing into a parking space if she'd only imagine it was a pair of shoes."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

We are coming up on the season of love I see in the daily journals. The social pages are full of loving letters:

"Passes candy." That is the way a cupcake announces she is about to wed.

She gets all the other cupcakes in her group around. And she passes them some candy. I do not know what kind. Licorice whips maybe. I would like that. I haven't had a licorice whip in ages.

ANYWAY, SHE passes the candy around. And all the other little dollies know this child has got it made. Wedding bells.

Well, the fact is, this lady has just lost numbers in the insurance statistics.

A STUDY HAS BEEN made by Professor Edwin Sutherland, who professes at Indiana University. A lady, says the Professor, is twice as likely to get gunned by her boy friend after she is married than before.

In this season of love and candy, the Professor gathered up a lot of statistics involving tender emotion and the old 44.

HE FOUND THAT gents are more lethal after marriage than before. Twice as much. The jealous husband reaches for the lady-from-Bristol. Bang!

Better the girl should not pass candy. Better she should save her money and buy herself something in the trapeze line. With an armored vest.

It took the Professor three years to make his study. And he reported the facts to the Journal of Law and Criminology.

I THINK IT MISSES a point. What are the chances of the gentleman who is getting the candy passed about him?

I have not made a study of the statistics. But I have walked into a good many households with the homicide squad. The dear departed on the rug was usually the breadwinner. That is the fact. I report only personal experience.

From personal experience, I do not think gentlemen pistol their ladies. They clobber them with a broom handle.

A LADY, ON THE other hand, reaches for the family pistol (which is usually handy on the closet shelf.) She thinks about how much she loves this gent. And she plugs him in the brisket.

"I plug him because I love him so," she says to the homicide man.

When I was interviewing such ladies — and you wait until they are disarmed. They have just got one. Maybe they will try for two. Anyway, when I was interviewing such ladies, we used to ask them what led to the unfortunate ending.

THEY GAVE SOME mighty clever excuses.

"He refused to help me dry the dishes." That was one I remember. And it taught me a lesson. I am one of the most willing dish dryers you ever saw. I would not let any one else touch a dish towel. Not even the automatic dishwasher.

You would think a thoughtful lady would plead self-defense.

No. They just plead love. Plus a legitimate complaint.

WELL, I AM NOT putting the knock on love. Not in this loving season. I simply point out that when you are setting up house, you should watch out for household accidents.

Do not step on soap in the bathtub. Or run around with sharp things in your hand.

It is also a thought, while unloading the candy box, unload the pistol. Live happily ever after. But live.

Tools Sho: 'Man of the Year' And His Best Friends Tell Why

NEW YORK—To celebrate being "Man of the Year" in Philadelphia, Tools Sho engaged a Greyhound bus—stocked it with food, drinks, waiters and bartenders—and took a load of friends to the testimonial dinner. I am still getting over it.

They got into tuxes and left N.Y. at 4:30 P.M., describing their conveyance as "the best-dressed bus in town."

Due to Tools' fame as a witty insulter, his guests turned the tables and playfully defamed him. Samples of some dialogue on the bus:

"How did Tools get voted Man of the Year?" "It was a very bad year."

"What did Tools ever do good for Philly?" "He left."

When they passed a bus going the opposite direction, John Daly, Don Ameche, Gen. Emmett "Rosie" O'Donnell, or one of his chums said, "There's a bus load of Philadelphians going to N.Y. to get away from the party."

Tools had preceded the party to Philly. Lee Meyers, master of ceremonies on the bus, announced as they started, "Now everybody enjoy the ride down — because, coming back, Tools will be with us."

Despite the kidding, the dinner was proof of great respect and affection for Tools in two cities. Joe DiMaggio flew up from Miami Beach to be with his pal.

Tools told how Jackie Gleason once asked him for a loan of $2,000. "What do you want it for?" asked Tools. "Don't get so nosy," snorted Gleason, "or I won't take it!"

Gypsy Rose Lee's starting a lecture tour—aided by movies that tell her life story—and plays Town Hall next month. She'll earn $4,000 to $5,000 a night on the lecture, tentatively titled, "The Glamour Of It All." Her sister June Haver has asked to be cut out of it—because it shows her in the Arthur Murray dance contest but doesn't show that she won.

Jack E. Leonard was one of the funniest comedians in the world on the Steve Allen show; especially with these: "My wife bought three cocktail dresses and she doesn't even drink... When Yul Brynner goes to a barbershop, he orders two things: a shave and a shave... I would stand up here and be funny all night but I don't want to spoil the format of this show."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Sammy Kaye described a visit to the home of a well-known luth: "When you slam the front door, the whole house gurgles."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Victor Borge, completing a 16-city tour, says, "It was a tremendously successful trip—I found a parking space in every city." "Life's just one disappointment after another," sighs H. C. Diefenbach. "Now that we no longer have teeth to brush, someone's invented a bourbon toothpaste."... That's earl, brother.

'Shutter Bugs' Take Chartered Bus Trip to Joshua Tree National Monument, Visit Canyons in High Desert Area

People along the back roads of the high desert stood gaping this week as a big Greyhound bus filled with passengers passed through.

The seldom seen bus on those roads was a chartered special, with a group of "shutter bugs" from Palm Springs and vicinity.

The all day trip was arranged by Glen Vargas, who teaches a class in photography or Adult Education.

THE BUS PICKED up the last of its passengers at Tamarisk Park, leaving at 7:15 a.m. First stop was Christ Desert Park, in Yucca Valley, where Brother Anton Martin, creator of the unique park, greeted the unexpected guests, and briefly explained its purpose.

With frequent stops along the road for flower snaps photographing, the bus drove through Joshua Tree National Monument, where the 31 color enthusiasts were fascinated by the odd formations. In a sheltered campground, the group ate a picnic lunch.

THE BUS ROUTE led into Cottonwood Spring, and home through picturesque Box Canyon. The rains have brought out many flowers seldom seen in the desert, and the weather was perfect for pictures.

A longer overnight rock hunting trip via chartered bus has been announced for the near future by Vargas. Those interested are asked to call him at Indio, EX 9-5304.

County-wide Finance Drive Is Started for Knowland

A county-wide finance campaign on behalf of U. S. Senator William F. Knowland's bid for the office of Governor of California was opened today by Edgar L. McCoubrey, well known auto dealer of Riverside and Palm Springs and civic leader, as he invited voters of all political parties, and persons in all walks of life to "have a part in electing this stalwart American to the governor's office this year."

McCoubrey, chairman of the Finance Committee which has set a goal of $15,000 for the campaign in this county, hopes that thousands of small contributions will be received in this bi-partisan drive to elect Knowland.

BIGGEST PART OF the fund will be spent in the county for advertising, printing, headquarters expense and supplies, but the goal also includes the county's share of the state-wide budget. Donations should be mailed to the Knowland for Governor Finance Committee, 3395 Market Street, Riverside, McCoubrey said.

"What could be more important in these perilous times than to make sure we have as governor of California a man of proven loyalty, courage, honesty and one with real training for the job?" McCoubrey asked in his statement launching the finance campaign.

"WE SHOULD NOT settle for anyone less than a man of Knowland's vast knowledge of Washington, his thorough understanding of the serious Pacific area problems, and a leader with the courage to speak his mind on major issues even though his stand may not be liked by special interests."

"I know that thousands of men and women in Riverside county will recognize this as an opportunity to lend their personal support, in a most effective way, to the campaign to elect this stalwart American to the office of Governor of California this year. No gift is too small."

"We, by far, would rather have one dollar each from 15,000 voters than $15,000 from a few large contributors. I'm supremely confident that every contributor to this fund will have many reasons for years to come to be proud of his support of Senator Knowland," he concluded.

Home Gardeners Keep Professionals in Horticultural World Busy Creating Plant Types; Dwarfs Example

Wishing doesn't always "make it so," but in the horticultural world the wishes of home gardeners keep the professionals busy creating plant types practically "to order." The newly introduced dwarf forms of the most popular shrubs are good examples of nurseries' attempts to provide plants to fit the home gardeners' particular needs, suggests the California Association of Nurserymen.

THE CALIFORNIA home owner needed small, compact shrubs for several landscaping purposes:

ground cover, borders and small hedges, as examples. Instead of searching for new shrubs which would take time to prove themselves, the nursery growers introduced dwarf or compact varieties of the best known shrubs. Among the shrubs so developed are pyracantha, abelia, nandina and bougainvillea.

The Santa Cruz Pyracantha grows to a height of 2 to 3 feet and spreads from 6 to 8 feet. This makes it ideal for ground cover. It is decorative in the fall when covered by large red berries and its glossy green foliage is attractive the year round.

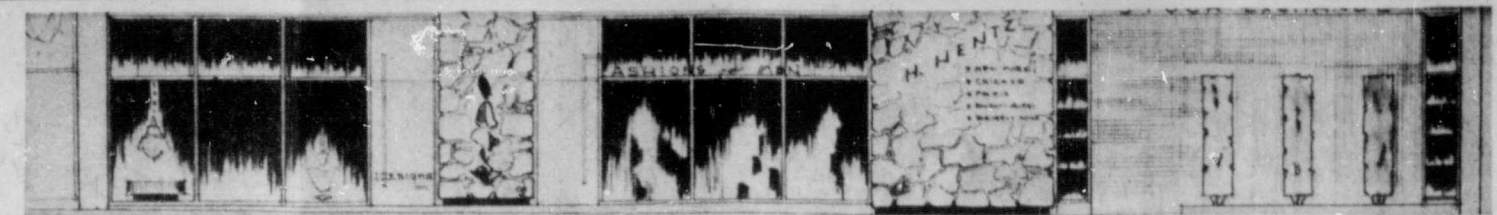

A LOVELY PLANT for foundation planting patterns or for ground cover is Spreading Abelia (abelia grandifolia prostrata), a new variety which is low, spreading and keeps to about 2 and one-half feet. This very hardy plant has glossy foliage and white flowers.

The new compact form of popular Heavenly Bamboo (nandina domestica) retains the light airy grace and colorful green, bronze and red foliage of the parent plant but it grows more densely and to a smaller size. The n.d. compacta grows to a rounded shrub of 2 to 3 feet. This is also a good container plant.

BOUGAINVILLEA TEMPLE Fire is a gorgeous specimen plant in full sun. Its compact growing habit makes it ideal for planting in the foreground of any foundation arrangement. Bright red flowers on this shrubby form of bougainvillea will make it the center of attention in any garden when it is in bloom. This is a tender plant so local nurserymen should be consulted on its suitability in your area.

Other newly-introduced dwarf or compact shrubs include Compact Strawberry Plant (arbutus undecompacta), eugenia compacta Rosedale, a compact Chinese Holly (ilex cornuta rotunda) and a compact Oregon Grape (mahonia aquifolium compacta).

One of the things that spurred developers in their quest for these dwarfs may have been the success of the compact and spreading forms of juniper. The latest addition to this large and popular family is Juniper Bar Harbor, a low sprawler with soft blue foliage in summer turning to a deep blue with plum undertones in winter.

IMMEDIATE CONSTRUCTION of a new three-story building on North Palm Canyon Drive to start as soon as contracts are signed, was announced today by motion picture producer Sol Lesser. It will be located adjacent to the Dorothy Gray Shop in the 1000 block, with parking to extend through to Indian Avenue. The

Store Building Plans Announced By Sol Lesser

Motion picture producer Sol Lesser today announced that he plans "immediate" construction of a modern, new three-story building on North Palm Canyon Drive.

Lesser, a Palm Springs winter resident for 15 years, said the single-story unit will be located adjacent to, on the south of, the Dorothy Gray Shop at 1074 North Palm Canyon.

PRELIMINARY PLANS will be offered contractors and bid estimates called today. Lesser said he expects the project to cost about $75,000.

Designed by Howard Lapham, well-known Village designer, the building will have 90 feet of frontage and will cover about 6,500 square feet, divided into three shops. A parking lot in the rear will extend to Indian Avenue.

Lesser said he eventually hopes to put up a second office building on the Indian Avenue frontage, but, he said, this will be subject to zoning variances.

WORK ON The Palm Canyon Drive building will begin as soon as a contract is signed, Lesser said.

Lesser, who has extensive real estate holdings in the resort area, said he also is looking forward to future development of his property in the Tamarisk area.

Clematis Vines Suggested for Consideration

In surveying their private domain most home owners can find several places to plant an attractive vine. To add a welcoming note at the doorway, to protect a large window from the hot afternoon sun, to hide an unsightly service area, to give a tall background for foundation planting—these are just a few of the reasons gardeners turn to vines.

The California Association of Nurserymen recommends that home owners review the useful clematis family before selecting a vine for any purpose.

The universally popular clematis armandi is a handsome evergreen with large glossy green leaves. During March and April it is covered with slightly fragrant, 2 inch, open star-like flowers. Since it does not drop its leaves, like the deciduous clematis varieties, this plant doesn't usually make a good shade vine—most people want to let the light in during cooler months. Clematis armandi is slow to start its growth, but really races once it gets started.

Among the deciduous species of clematis the home gardener can select from many colors and growth habits. Clematis Ramona grows from 8 to 10 feet with light blue blossoms appearing in July and lasting for several weeks. Clematis Crispum Star produces abundant crimson flowers from July to September.

MODERN GAS-FIRED broiling techniques moves barbecuing indoors for home "cheffing" all-year round. New equipment now available for residential use in the home has recently received American Gas Association seal of approval for its operation.

Barbecuing Brought Indoors For Year-Round Enjoyment

Barbecuing, one of the long-standing outdoor pleasures of Southern Californians, has been civilized and brought indoors for added year-round enjoyment.

Following complete testing by the American Gas Association's research laboratory, the Char-Glo gas-fired barbecue broiler was granted the AGA Certificate of Approval and the new cooking appliance made available for residential use.

THE BROILER, formerly confined strictly to commercial steak houses and restaurants, is designed for clean, effortless barbecuing right in the kitchen or family room.

While eliminating the mess and bother of charcoal, the new broiler retains the genuine barbecue flavor by heating ceramic "coals" with the blue-flame of natural gas.

CHARCOAL, it was explained, has no flavor in itself and does not add flavor. Only the caramelization caused on the meat surface by flame and intense heat gives that special "charcoal flavor."

A special tilt-back grill controls "flare-ups" in this barbecue broiler, which can easily be built in to existing kitchen counters or in to a chimney type unit as a companion piece to a built-in gas oven.

Tips Given on How to Care For Glass Cooking Utensils

Well-designed glassware—whether it's a casserole or cannelabra, salad plate or sugar bowl—is both pretty and practical. It's extremely durable and can take plenty of hard wear and survive.

Modern American-made cookware needs no special pampering, but like all fine things, it responds to kind treatment. A little, simple care will keep it clear and shining as well as insure its long useful life. Here are tips on cleaning:

FILL GLASS COOKING utensils with food or liquid before heating them. Never heat an empty utensil.

Grease baking dishes well before putting in food. This will make dishwashing easier.

Never allow top-of-stove glassware to boil dry. Food cooks quickly in glassware, so it's best to use low to moderate heat.

HANDLE HOT cookware with a dry cloth and never set hot dishes on a wet surface.

Style Show To Interest The Men Too

Kirk Douglas, famous film star and Village home owner, took a look at the exciting fashions being readied for their premiere showing at the Palm Springs B'nai B'rith Women's first annual luncheon and fashion show, and opined they will interest the men too. So the men are cordially invited to attend the luncheon showing which will be held at the Racquet Club on Thursday, April 17 at 12:30 p.m.

An imposing array of the season's outstanding fashions has been assembled by Mrs. Melba Blum, co-chairman of this event, and will be presented by a group of Palm Springs stores and modeled by motion picture starlets and television personalities.

The show will include: A "Hawaiian motif" by Waltha Clarke, bringing the fascinating styles of the island; sports attire will be featured by Gladys, and Ray's Men's Shop; the last word in knitwear and date dresses will be exhibited by Diane's Hand Knits; the latest creations by Jackman, showing the new look for men, will come from Oasis Men's Shop; "Designers' Originals" to be unveiled to our style-conscious Palm Springs audience by Don Miguel; handsome accessories and bags will be from Henry Frank; hair-dos to complement the new trend will be created by Irene's Hair Fashions; the new and the different in footwear will come from Ted Land; and, of course, the all-important Furs by Courtney.

Mrs. Rina Spears and her committee are diligently at work in an all-out attempt to make this initial luncheon and fashion show a real oscar-award-winning occasion.

Reservations may be made through any of the local merchants listed above or: Mrs. Dorothy Lager, FA 5-5796 or Mrs. Crystal Auerbach, FA 5-7374.

Has Visitors

En route from Daytona Beach, Florida to their home in Tacoma, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. G. Gellenbeck spent Friday through Sunday as guests of Mrs. Peg Rashall. Mrs. Gellenbeck is a cousin of Mrs. Rashall and a sister of Maurice H. Stans, who was appointed by President Eisenhower last week as the new Budget Director to succeed Percival F. Brundage.

Dinner Hosts

Hosting a dinner at the Racquet Club the other evening were Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Swanson.

In their party were Signor and Signora Guisepi Belline of Florence, Italy, the Kenneth Merediths of New York City, the Ralph Kinners, Mr. and Mrs. Kent Hayes and the Adrian O'Keefes of Boston.

Nancy Tuttle, was welcomed as a new member by Frances Walls, membership chairman, and Mrs. Tuttle gave a very interesting maiden speech. Inspiration was given by Theora Wight, lexicologist, Josephine Moon, evaluator, Margo Morrison; time keeper, Dorothy Owens; closing thought, Suzanne Hubbard. Mrs. Lu Hull of the Paradise Toastmistress Club was a guest. Club representative, Dorothy Owen gave a report on the speech contest held at Morongo Valley. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served.

President, Theora Wight invited members and their guests to a pooluck dinner and pool party, April 1, 6:30 p.m., at the home of Estelle Yerkes, 2390 Araby Drive.

Members may call Betty Luce at FA 5-2064 for further information regarding this event.

High School P-TA Luncheon Honors Mrs. Gallerani

An assortment of spring flowers made an attractive table centerpiece for a luncheon held at the Town and Country restaurant Wednesday afternoon. The luncheon given by the board members of the Palm Springs High School P-TA honored Mrs. John Gallerani, outgoing president.

Among those present were Mmes. J. Allen Slone, Virgil H. Evans, Frank Hilton, Weston Naef, Elden Pack, Ross Blemling, Frank Miller, William Ekins and Richard Bagdasarian.

Candlelight Ceremony As P-TA Installs

A beautiful candlelight ceremony marked the installation of officers for the 1958-59 year of the Palm Springs High School Parent-Teacher Association.

After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Elwood Rutherford installed the following officers: Mrs. J. Allen Slone, president; Mrs. Frank Hilton, 1st vice president; Mrs. Weston Naef, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Charles Wallace, 3rd vice president; Mrs. Ross Blemling, recording secretary; Mrs. Edward Tomke, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Butler, historian; Dan Angel, corresponding secretary; and Duane Lance, auditor.

On behalf of the P-TA Mrs. Slone gave Mrs. John Gallerani a past president's pin for her outstanding year of service to the P-TA.

A beautifully decorated table and delicious refreshments were prepared by Mrs. Robert Allen, assisted by Mrs. Slone and Mrs. Robert Beck. A social time with teachers and parents was enjoyed by all.

Mayor Bing Crosby . . . Palm Desert's first citizen . . . is heading up a committee working towards the completion and dedication of the new Catholic Church of Palm Desert . . . that will be named Sacred Heart . . . It is expected to be completed June 1st with dedication ceremonies set for next fall . . . First money-raising function will be a style show luncheon at Thunderbird Country Club next Wednesday . . . which is being sponsored by Mayor Bing . . .

One of the glamorous models will be Palm Desert's own Virginia Fields . . . Of course, proceeds from the benefit will go to the church . . . This isn't just for the women, either . . . there will be a whistle table for the men who aren't golfing that day . . .

Fashions for the luncheon showing will be the smart creations of Rags from Bess Bender . . . and executive chairman Pete Pettito tells me there will be a specially nice door prize from Lulu Belle dress shop out at Shadow Mountain Club . . .

Postcard division . . . Bright-colored, far-fetched links between Palm Springs and far-off places: Anne Gouger writes from Port-Au-Prince, Haiti . . . Ex-Villagers Dorothy and Chester Adler who sold their house here last winter . . . wrote from Majorca . . . They've been doing the Mediterranean . . . and Jay Richards, newly-arrived at his new post in San Juan, P.R., where he's with the Rockefeller Foundation . . . took time to send his address . . . and say "hi" to his Palm Springs friends . . .

Something special for the Sunday brunch program at El Mirador this week . . . will be the Redlands University choir of 40 voices . . . The Easter Hat Parade coming up on Easter Sunday should be an all-time recordbreaker . . . Several hostesses have already sent out invitations for parties they are hosting there that day . . . Among them will be Bertine Treat, Bernice Young, Edith Bamberger . . .

Easter Sunday is the date for the O. E. L. Graves' exhibit to open at El Mirador . . . and that evening Marie and Ash Levy are hosting a cocktail buffet at their home . . .

Ginny Simms, who's in New York at the St. Regis . . . and will be there for another two weeks . . . is getting great reviews in the metropolitan papers and from the trade columnists . . . who are welcoming back her "great voice and warm personality" . . . after too long an absence . . . Ginny's getting homesick though and may cancel her Pittsburgh engagement and come home . . .

Dining at Romanoff's Tuesday night were the Harry Clows of Chicago (he's with Rand McNally and she's the former Lee Cudahy of the meat packing family) . . . who were with Jan King and Pierre Bouscaren . . .

The following night Jan entertained at a small cocktail party at her El Alameda home honoring the Clows who have a new home in Palm Desert . . . Among others at the intimate little affair were Dr. and Mrs. Frank Fara of Chicago and Palm Springs . . . Dr. and Mrs. Frank Glassman, Buddy and A. R. Simon . . . and the Charles Eckstroms of Tacoma. He's a retired lumberman and they own the 1956 Futurity yearling Red Garter . . .

The Robert Hudsons are at their Thunderbird home . . . recently returned from four months abroad . . . and entertained a Portland group at dinner at the Racquet Club the other evening . . . including the Arnold W. Groths, Mrs. Hubert Leonard and son, Hap . . .

At the Kemper party the other evening . . . the Farrells and the Bennetts were discussing two interesting visitors to Palm Springs . . . One has already been here and gone . . . the Princess Hohenzollern granddaughter of Kaiser Wilhelm . . . You may have read about her in the Saturday Evening Post a few weeks back . . . She's the one who married a Texan and went to Texas to live . . . She and her husband were vacationing here at Deep Well about three weeks ago . . . very quietly of course . . . Sad aftermath of their stay in Palm Springs . . . the Princess's husband died on their way home . . .

The visitor to come is the Ambassador from Sweden Erik Boheman who with his wife will be at the Racquet Club April 4-5-6 . . . They are formerly addressed as "Their Excellencies, The Ambassador and Madame Boheman" . . . The Frank Bennetts will hold a reception for them while they are here . . . Also excited about the visit is Mari (Mrs. Stewart) Williams . . . who is Swedish and has a family acquaintance with the Ambassador's family . . .

Charlie Farrell left Wednesday for Chicago where he'll be toastmaster at the reunion of the Quonset Point, R.I., Officers Naval Training School . . . and will introduce such top brass as Vice President Richard Nixon and the Secretary of the Navy . . . He was saying at the Kemper's . . . that the last time he introduced Dick Nixon it was here in Palm Springs when Nixon was a Congressman running for U. S. Senate . . . and Charlie presented him as "Nick Dixon" . . . He said he just HOPED it wouldn't come out that way this time . . .

Weekend houseguests of Louise and Maury Horner . . . will be the Jim Bohmke of Hillsborough, California . . . Jim is vice president of John Deere & Company.

Ex-Senator Is Host at COT Dinner

Ex-Senator Albert Hawkes of Montclair, New Jersey, who has a house at Palm Desert and is a member of the Committee of Twenty Five, hosted around 50 guests at cocktails and dinner in the COT clubhouse Wednesday evening. Assisting him in receiving his guests was his daughter Mrs. Morgan Padelford . . . Tables were set up indoors and were decorated with pink bouquets, featuring pink peppermint carnations. The entree was roast royal quab with wild rice, prepared by master chef Santos . . . The Senator, past president of General Chemical and past president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, is a noted after dinner speaker and addressed his guests, interspersing his remarks with the anecdotes for which he is famous . . .

Guests included: Messrs. and Mrs. J. H. Ballinger, Warren Bean, Henry Dollar, Mel Eaton, Reuben Fleet, Fred Karlen, James Kemper, Joseph Magnus, Murray Marsh, Albert C. Mattei, Robert Ross, George Schuchart, Ben Shearer, Harrison Spangler, Floyd Turner, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell and others.

Tri-County Unit Meets In Village

Members of the Tri-County Chapter of Savings and Loan Institute, which includes the counties of Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial, met last night for a dinner in Oasis Hotel.

This dinner party was given to honor a vacationing past president of the American Savings and Loan Institute of Chicago, Robert Hazen, now of Portland, Oregon, and Mrs. Hazen.

Among those traveling to Palm Springs for the occasion will be a group of past and present officers and trustees of the Savings and Loan Institute. They included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prince, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Burch, Miss Marie Brennan, Miss Lillian Johnson, all of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. Verne Potter Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Hilo, Mrs. Katherine Costello, San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Route, Fontana; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Argue, Banning.

Also present will be the president of the Tri-County chapter, Edward Huckaby, of Colton, and Mrs. Huckaby; and Lucille K. Johnson, of Palm Springs, who is vice president of the group. Miss Marie Brennan, of Riverside, is the first woman in California to receive a three year diploma in Savings and Loan work. Miss Johnson, of Palm Springs, returned from the 33rd Annual Conference in Cleveland.

Surprise Dinner Party Celebrates Natal Anniversary

Another Aries birthday was celebrated Tuesday evening when Mrs. Frank Toth was honored at a birthday dinner in her home on Cerritos Drive, when Mrs. Eva Bruno, of Encino, houseguest and longtime friend of the Toths prepared a special spaghetti dinner as a surprise.

An added surprise was when the Toth's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toth Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomme walked in singing "Happy Birthday."

Following dinner and the opening of the many beautiful gifts, the group enjoyed an evening of cards.

Lenten Tea Next Tuesday At Elser Home

The Guild of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church will hold the next of its series of Lenten Teas on March 25, at the home of Mrs. Elaine Childs Elser at 1189 Tamarisk. Co-hostesses for the tea will be Mrs. Dora Cl. K. Margaret Moore, Winnefret Moshier and Myron Person.

The Guild will hold its business meeting at 1:30 p.m., preceding the tea hour, with the president Mrs. A. H. Nebl conducting the meeting. Speaker for the afternoon will be the Rev. John Cummings, rector of Trinity parish in Redlands.

All parishioners and friends are invited to attend.

DEZI ARNAZ' WESTERN HILLS HOTEL Singer Clessa Williams gives Louisa Sanborn a lesson in maracas swinging as her husband, Palm Springs Mayor Jerry Sanborn looks on approvingly. Lesson took place at the highly successful opening of Western Hills' new and exciting Latin Fiesta, a weekly Tuesday night event which drew a sell-out crowd to the picturesque hotel located 15 miles east of Palm Springs. (Gayle Studio Photo).

New Member of Agua Calientes

Frank and Dora Joyce Prieto of 466 North El Segundo Road, are the parents of an eight pound eight ounce son, born March 14 at 7:25 p.m., at the Casita Hospital in Indio.

The baby named Damon Patrick Prieto, is the newest member of the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians and has a brother Michael.

Mrs. Prieto is a member of the band's Tribal Council. Grandmother of the new arrival is Mrs. Margaret Prieto of 426 South Calle Santa Rosa.

Western's First Fiesta Is Sell-Out

Desi Arnaz' Western Hills Hotel has come up with a hit event in its Tuesday night Latin Fiesta.

Almost on the first anniversary of the jewel-like resort's opening, its first funfest was a complete sell-out.

The place was colorfully decorated with Latin American paraphernalia, bull fight posters, serapes, pinatas, gourds, and huge sombreros, while maracas, castanets and tambourines were on the tables as souvenirs.

A lavish south of the border buffet was served. Many of the guests wore Latin American costumes and participated in the dance contests staged by the Arthur Murray Dancers from Palm Springs. Winner in the men's division was Dr. Thomas Seddon of Sahara Trailer Park who danced with Betty Campbell. Mrs. John Dominguez was the best woman dancer and her partner was Johnny Martin.

Guests at the first weekly event included many ranchers in the lush Coachella Valley area. Among those present were: Barney and Barbara Hinkle, Frank and Janice Bogert, Jack and Helen Kenaston, the James Hammonds, Mayor and Mrs. Jerry Sanborn of Palm Springs, Sam and Dixie Janis, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Seddon and Bill and Ella Olsen, Ray Ryan, Tony Padden, Bill Gorman, and a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Main and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Main, all of El Monte. There was a beautiful birthday cake to celebrate Oscar's 80th birthday.

In Hospital

Roma Marvin, manager of Diane Handknits, underwent major surgery on Monday and will be in the Desert Hospital for a week or 10 days.

Orchestral Symposium At Redlands

The third annual Orchestral Symposium of American Music will be held in the Memorial Chapel on the campus of the University of Redlands, Saturday evening, March 22, at 8:15 p.m. The University - Community Symphony Orchestra, augmented by professional Hollywood studio musicians, will present premiere performances of seven new works at this concert. Several of the composers will be present for the program.

There will be no admission charged, but an offering will be taken, the proceeds of which will be used for the Charles Wakefield Cadman Memorial Scholarship, which provides the tuition for a graduate student in composition at the University of Redlands.

The Musicians Union through its Music Performance Trust Fund is making this unique project possible.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK — "Lighthouse Harry" Cooper is on the briny today chalking up his 90,000th mile as the world's only sea-going golf pro while proving once again that golf doesn't have to be the crawling contest which most pros make it.

One of the first great Texans of the fairway, Cooper earned his nickname when he won the Los Angeles Open in a record two-hour and 30-minute round. He's still under a full head of steam, literally and figuratively, as golf pro of the S.S. Homeric on its luxury cruises among the Caribbean ports.

IN THE PROCESS he has everybody from the head cook to the captain waggling a golf club and speaking an unheard-of nautical jargon concerning birdie buffets and bad-lie longitude.

Cooper sweeps over the ship like a tidal wave, discussing a looping backswing with the head bartender, advising the dishwasher on how to play a ball buried saucer deep in water, conducting daily clinics on the sundeck for as many as 60 passengers at a time and giving private lessons from sunset until dusk.

"YOU'VE GOT TO keep moving, just like they should on the golf course," Cooper says in his machine-gun manner. "Players take entirely too long to play a round of golf these days. Those five hour rounds are a disgrace and there should be stiff penalties for such slow-motion play."

Cooper is making his 14th cruise aboard the Homeric.

The golfers aboard gear their swing decks under his critical eye and, when they reach port, Cooper conducts them to the local golf course for a morning round. That leaves the afternoon for shopping, which makes the seaborne golf widows happy again.

Only once has Cooper been shocked by his pupils. One of them walked up to the ship, looked disgustedly at the set of clubs he was carrying, and then snorting "the Dickens with it," or words to that effect, tossed the clubs overboard.

It was only a gag cooked up for the teacher with an old set of clubs. But Harry thought for a moment it was time to settle down on dry land. As it is, he's liable to be around longer than Captain Bligh.

Taylor, Ward Hold Tourney Spotlight

120 Start 54-Hole Play Here

Exactly 120 top amateur golfers of the country teed-off today in the 23rd annual Palm Springs Invitational at O'Donnell Golf Course, with the greatest attention centered on the tie-off of Dr. Bud Taylor at 11 a.m. and Harvie Ward at 12 noon, continuing a long rivalry for top honors between the two golfers.

Taylor is defending champion and has taken four titles compared with Ward's two, but since 1954 the two men have traded the title each year.

BUT WHILE THE rivals battle it out, Ted Richards, National Public Links Champion who was in third place last year, trailing Ward by only one stroke, is on hand for another try for the big trophy.

Other top amateurs competing include Johnny Dawson, winner of the trophy in 1949 and top winner of the Seniors Tournament this week, Bob Cardinal, Stanford's former grid star John Brodie, Bob Doos, Jr., Jim French, youthful Dick and Bill Foote of UCLA, Jim McGonigall, nine times amateur champion of Louisiana, and former champ Charles Teel of Las Vegas, Nev.

THE 54-HOLE PLAY will end Sunday, and awards will be given out at the golf club as soon as the scores are compiled.

Scores in yesterday's play follow:

Class 55-59 years: Low gross—John Dawson, 65; Ross McPhee, 67; R. H. Guelich, 69; Dr. W. C. McBride, 72. Low net—A. T. Procopio, 81-18-63; Ted R. Hughes, 76-15-61; Gustav Horn, 85-18-65; J. Seyler, 75-16-65. Class 60-64: Low gross—W. A. Moncrief, 69; C. A. Griswold, 70; Chauncey Needham, 72; Stan Weller, 73; Harold McCullister, 74. Low net—Harold McCullister, 74-15-61; Chauncey Needham, 75-16-61; W. L. Williams, 75-16-61; F. R. McConnell, 83-19-61; Col. L. R. McGhee, 77-15-64. Class 65-69: Low gross—Frank Bender, Franklin Robinson, 70; Art A. Smith, 71; R. F. Shearer, H. H. Rhoads, 73. Low net—Art A. Smith, 73-12-60; Ernie Clark, 76-15-61; J. Hollenbeck, 81-20-61; H. H. Rhoads, 78-11-62. Class 70-74: Low gross—P. O'Keeffe, 73; Carl T. Roar, 73; Fred Nicholson, 75; H. S. Walton, 79. Low net—Fred Nicholson, 75-14-61; Tom J. Haley, 80-16-61. Class 75-over: Low gross—Fred Barrows, 79; V. E. Kullinger, 79. Low net—George Bailey, 82-15-67; J. H. Adamson, 82-15-67; Chase Garfield, 84-15-69.

old veteran golfer who scored a 77 to win the class 5 event—75 years and over. W. A. Moncrief was winner of the Class 2 event with a 69, and D. P. O'Keeffe took the Class 4 award with a two-over-par 73. (Desert Sun Photos.)

Mantle, Aaron Start Blasting

By UNITED PRESS

The most valuable players of 1957 are ready to defend their laurels in '58.

That's the message from Mickey Mantle and Hank Aaron, whose thunderous bats led the New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves into the World Series last season. Both got off to slow starts this spring but they're belting away now as if they already could smell this year's Series dough.

MANTLE SMASHED two 400-foot homers and a pair of doubles Thursday to lead the Yankees to an 11-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies and stretch their winning streak to six games. The Oklahoma Kid now has collected 11 hits, including three homers, a triple and five doubles, knocked in 13 runs and is hitting .344.

Aaron, meanwhile, walloped a pair of homers to drive in four runs and spark the Braves to an 11-1 triumph over the Cincinnati Redlegs and square the world champions' spring record at 5-5. Aaron's spring figures show nine hits, including three homers, nine runs batted in and a .346 average.

THE PITTSBURGH Pirates demonstrated some long ball power when they beat the Kansas City Athletics, 7-4, for their third win of the spring.

Herb Score, still limping because of a sprained ankle, tossed three scoreless innings for the Cleveland Indians but the San Francisco Giants rallied late to score a 10-inning, 7-5 triumph.

The Baltimore Orioles and Chicago Cubs split a doubleheader, the Orioles winning the first, 4-1, and the Cubs taking a 10-inning second game, 1-0 and Don Drysdale pitched four perfect innings but the Los Angeles Dodgers had to come from behind to beat the Detroit Tigers, 6-4.

Junior Rodeo Set Saturday At Smoke Tree

First annual Junior Rodeo is scheduled this weekend at Smoke Tree Stables, sponsor of the event, with Grand Entry set for 12:30 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday. Rivaling the adult meets in events, entries will be in two age groups, 13 and under, and 18 and under.

Events to be featured include calf roping, team roping, ribbon roping, break-away roping (under 13), steer riding, barrel racing and pole bending. A large number of local entrants, as well as top junior riders from the surrounding area, have been entered. Prizes will be awarded.

The public is invited, with no admission charge.

Entries Closed For Merchants Tourney at Indio

INDIO — Entries closed yesterday for the Coachella Valley Merchants' Tournament for Palm Springs and lower Valley golfers, which is scheduled Saturday at the Cochran Ranch Golf Course.

Merchandise valued at more than $1,000 will be awarded to the winners and runners-up for low net and low gross in four flights. Three flights will be USGA handicapped, and one a caddyway.

The tournament will be 18-hole medal play, with starting times strictly enforced.

SPORTS in the SUN

The Desert Sun Friday, March 21, 1958 10

VILLAGE CONSIDERED FOR NEW HALL OF FAME

Palm Springs was one of three western cities that were today rated as the "best sites" for construction of a new Sportsmanship Hall of Fame.

National Sportsmanship Association officials said they are considering Palm Springs, El Paso, Texas, and Las Vegas. It was pointed out that Palm Springs was particularly viewed as a possible site because of its proximity to Los Angeles and its heavy calendar of sports events.

The National Sportsmanship Hall of Fame is a non-profit foundation, organized to honor deeds of exceptional sportsmanship with presentation of certificates and trophies.

Founded in 1943, the Sportsmanship Hall of Fame is dedicated to "the preservation of the ideals and standards of sportsmanship."

Logart, Akins Battle Tonight For Title Bout

NEW YORK — Speedy Isaac Logart of Cuba and explosive Virgil Akins of St. Louis fight tonight at Madison Square Garden for a shot at the vacant welterweight crown.

The winner of this 12-round elimination final gets a title bout with contender Vince Martinez of Patterson, N. J., on June 6, at a site not yet selected.

Logart, a fast-hooking pressure fighter is favored at 7-5 to beat taller Akins, a long-range bomber, in their nationally televised and broadcast (NBC) bout.

They are meeting for the third time in a "rubber match" that is the most important contest of their careers. Each won a decision in 1935 when they fought twice. But tonight is the big one, for which each is guaranteed $20,000.

Dual Meet Set At El Centro

Coach Clare Ballagh's track team, impressive in meets to date, will travel to El Centro tomorrow for a dual battle with El Centro.

Bayer Leads By Two Strokes

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Big George Bayer had a new weapon to go with his long drives today as he started the second round of the $15,000 St. Petersburg Open golf tournament two strokes in front of the field.

The hulking professional from San Gabriel, Calif., ran down three putts of 20 to 25 feet Thursday en route to a three-under-par 68 for the first round lead.

Two Polo Games Set at Eldorado

A double-header polo match was today scheduled for Eldorado Country Club's polo field Sunday.

Rained out last Sunday, the Eldorado team will meet the Red Diamonds in the first game, scheduled for 2 p.m.

The second game features Valencia and Will Rogers Field.

Edris Chilson Wins Tourney At Tamarisk

Edris Chilson scored 34½ points to lead the first flight in this week's Women's auxiliary nine-hole tournament at Tamarisk Country Club.

Dena Galen led the second flight with 35, while Bette Forman scored 35 to head the third flight.

Flight winners were awarded golf pins as tournament prizes.

The regular weekly nine-hole match will be postponed next Tuesday, March 25, and the following Tuesday, April 1, so club members can wind up their three-day eclectic tournament.

First game in the eclectic schedule was played March 11.

Scheduled to ride Sunday for Eldorado are Lisle Nixon, Bill Allen, Bob Smith and Bill Tevis. Red Diamond riders are Ted Pierce, Bill Mayberry, Ken Walker and Allen Scherer.

Valencia team players Jack Ashley, R. G. Medlicott, Harry Merrell and Jack Smith. Representing Will Rogers Field are Bill Schulte, Bill Mayberry, Bob Wintringer and Don Howden.

Irish Elect Captains

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — Tom Hawkins and Gene Duffy, two of Notre Dame's top players during the past season, have been elected co-captains of the 1958-59 Irish basketball team.

ROY AND DOROTHY CHRISTMAN, MANAGERS

TRAILER BAHIA VILLA

13096 Blackbird Street, Garden Grove, California

We didn't want to be too close to the ocean. Because the salt air makes everything rusty. But we did want to get away from that awful heat of the desert. So you might say we struck it rich when we came to manage Bahia.

Rich in friends, rich in health and rich in peace of mind. My husband's father, old Mr. Christman, often said to me, "Dorothy, money is the last thing that makes folks rich." Roy and I are proving every day how right he was.

Bahia is a place you'll have to see to believe... the heated pool, the clubhouse, a work shop for the hobbyist, even a greenhouse for green-thumbers. One more thing... our prices start at $39.00 a month!

Write to either of us for more details, or call us on the phone. The best thing, of course, would be to come over and let us show you around. We hope you make it soon.

Paul Jorgenson Decisions Parra

LOS ANGELES — Punching Paul Jorgenson, fifth ranked NBA featherweight and Houston University student, decided Mexico's Ernesto Parra Thursday night in a 10-round main event at Olympic Auditorium.

The 130-pound Parra was spunky, aggressive and determined as he bore in on Jorgenson during most of the fight, but Jorgenson was waiting with sharp punches which scored too often for the Mexican to win.

Rams Sign Rookies
LOS ANGELES — Three rookies — halfback John Baker of North Carolina, halfback George Colbert of Denver U., and end Clint Westmeyer of St. Ambrose College — have signed 1958 contracts with the Los Angeles Rams, giving the club 12 rookies under contract.

Desert Girl Scouts to Hold Song Fest Here

Desert Sky Council for Girl Scouts and Brownies in the desert section of the county, consisting of girls from Beaumont, Banning, Indio, Palm Desert, Coachella, Palm Springs, North Palm Springs and Cathedral City, will hold a Girl Scout Song Fest at Tamarisk Park on Saturday, March 22, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Senior Girl Scouts from the Desert Sky Council will help lead the event.

About 600 girls are expected to attend the Singing Fest, and parents are invited to attend. Girls are to bring their own sack lunches.

Mrs. Elsie Eaton, Pioneer Resident of NPS, Succumbs

NORTH PALM SPRINGS — Mrs. Elsie Eaton, a pioneer resident of this community, died at 9:15 p.m. Thursday, at Loma Linda.

A native of Iowa, she had lived in North Palm Springs for 11 years, and together with her husband, she was active in the developing of Tramvue Trailer Park. She also was active in community affairs in this community. Survivors include her husband, A. L. Eaton; three daughters, Mrs. Harvey Anderson and Mrs. Lorene Hill, both of North Palm Springs, and Mrs. Elsie Ryman of Idaho; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m., Sunday, at Sunnyside Mausoleum in Long Beach, with interment to follow in that city.

The family has requested that flowers be omitted, with any person wishing to do so to donate in Mrs. Eaton's memory to the Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital, care of Sam Benton.

Polio Specialists To Take Stand On Fourth Shot

WASHINGTON — Top polio specialists were expected to take a stand today on the question of a fourth or "booster" Salk vaccine shot to give more protection to the public.

U. S. Surgeon General LeRoy E. Burney called the all-day closed-door conference to iron out the question of an extra shot and to review progress of the vaccination program in general.

The idea of a booster shot after the presently recommended series of three is completed was discussed favorably at the American Medical Association conference last spring. Burney has said he personally would favor it for his own children.

Getting the nation's population under 40 to take the necessary three shots — estimated to give up to 90 per cent protection — is a matter of growing concern to the health agency.

Burney said Thursday "serious outbreaks" of polio could come this summer unless vaccination programs are speeded up.

ONCE UPON A TIME there was a neurotic parrot who wouldn't even talk to his psychiatrist. It developed pal parrot had a phobia about big bills — especially in new cars. As a cure, his psychiatrist sent him flapping to his Mercury dealer. Why? Because it only takes a low down payment and even lower monthly payments to own the Performance Champion—Mercury. Now the parrot is the talk of the town in his new Mercury. Any wonder?

Senate Rackets Committee Schedules Hearings for the Remainder of This Year

WASHINGTON — The Senate Rackets Committee has tentatively scheduled hearings which will run almost continuously for the rest of this year. One series will involve "gangster infiltration of unions."

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) gave newsmen Thursday a sketchy preview of about a half dozen new inquiries the committee staff has underway. He said there were that many more that could reach the public hearing stage.

HE SAID IT WAS his hope that the committee could wind up its work this year and go out of business. He said it was doing the type of job that could never be completely finished.

McClellan laid out the committee's present plans as follows: —Conclude the current Kohler strike investigation next week and recess during the week before Easter.

—ON MONDAY OR Tuesday after Easter, begin a new series involving a big teamsters local in Philadelphia and some smaller labor groups. The subject matter will be the "usual pattern" of misuse of union funds and union-management collusion, he said.

—The Philadelphia hearings also will involve advertising "shake-downs" of business firms by certain publications. McClellan said there are not official union publications but publications that "trade on the name of unions."

He said the practice had been attacked by the AFL-CIO and might require legislative action.

—AFTER PHILADELPHIA, the committee hopes to look into the activities of the Butchers and Meat-cutters Union, mostly in New York City.

—The next series will involve restaurant workers in the Chicago area and include shakedown and collusion.

—After Chicago will come what

McClellan called "a most important hearing on East-Midwest gangster infiltrations of unions." This will involve the Mafia underworld organization and will link "high-ups in that element with management associations," he said.

—A later hearing will involve the Carpenters Union but no details were given.

Airplane Club Attends Show

Members of the Palm Springs Model Airplane Club this week journeyed to Los Angeles to view the Los Angeles Hobby Show staged at Pan Pacific Auditorium. City Recreation Supt. Howard Haddock, extended the club's appreciation to Don DuBois, Robert Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kapter for arranging the all-day trip. Kapter is president of the recreation department-sponsored club.
